CHILDREN

All events are F-R-E-E! All children are welcome at the library.
Each Monday will be Baby & Toddler Time. This is an opportunity for little children to play, dance, sing, hear stories, and learn new things.
Each Tuesday we'll host a special summer reading performer here at the library! This month we will have Adam Sanford (Artist), Gene Cordova (Puppets), Babatunde (Storyteller), and Animal Adventures!
Each Wednesday, Leta Tankersley Alton and other local educators will offer free, one-hour tutoring for children entering Kindergarten through 3rd Grade. Avoid the "summer slide" and see a staff member to sign up for a slot!
Thursdays we will read 2-4 stories with crafts following. The storytime themes for June are: Color, Father's Day, and Painting!
June 9 we'll hold a Library Photo Scavenger Hunt! Find all the items and take photos of them, then turn them in to the staff for a prize!
June 14 will be Library LEGO, a chance for kids to create with LEGO bricks.
Join us June 20 for Barks & Books! Come pet and read to therapy dogs. All handlers and animals are members of the Alliance of Therapy Dogs.
June 23 we will be having S.T.E.A.M Time, where children can learn new things in the Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Math fields. This month we'll be creating beautiful straw-woven bracelets to wear. Come and learn how to make a lovely piece of art!
June 25 we'll host Family NERF War! Adults and children can come battle against each other and see who comes out on top! Blasters and darts are provided or you can bring your own.
June 27, staff member Wade will teach you the art of toy photography. Bring your phone and a toy from home and come create your own masterpiece.
June 30 come by for a guided tour of our Fox in a Box pop up display! One of our librarians will share about the history and legacy behind the magnificent Fox Theatre. This display is on loan and will be available for public viewing June 25 through August 29 only!

TEENAGERS

June 12, participants will receive a prompt and a time limit to create a "work of art" with very limited resources!
June 13 the library will host a special, after-hours Teen Lock-in! Come spend Friday evening at the library. We'll provide pizza, games, and snacks, and show movies, play video games and more!
June 21 will continue D&D at the library! High schoolers and adults can join us for an exciting roleplaying adventure. All materials provided.

ADULTS

June 10, the bloodmobile will be on site at the library. To schedule an appointment, please visit bloodassurance.org. Walk-in donors are also welcome. All who give will receive a voucher for three free books.
June 13, staff member Tori will lead an adult craft utilizing the library's Cricut smart cutting machine. Participants will be able to design and customize mugs and cups themed around your favorite books. All materials provided free of charge!
Tue., June 17 the CM Library/Murray Arts Council's book club for adults will gather! Anyone is welcome to attend. This month's book is "The Mandibles: A Family, 2029-2047" by Lionel Shriver.
Sat., June 21 will continue D&D at the library! Adults and high schoolers can join us for an exciting roleplaying adventure. All materials provided.
June 26, published author Mark Brooks will lead a writing workshop at the library. Writers of all skill levels are welcome to attend this special event!
